Guest lecture on "opportunities and scope of pharmaceutical industry"

On March 6, 2019, the Laureate Institute of Pharmacy's Placement and Training cell hosted an interactive session on "Insight into the Scope of Pharmaceutical Industry." Mr. K. L. Sareen, Franklin Laboratory, Ludhiana, was the event's guest speaker. Prof. CPS Verma greeted the invited speaker with enthusiasm.

Mr. Sareen discussed the pharmaceutical industry's opportunities and scope. He went over the sales career path and the various sales positions available in the industry. He stated that India has a large pool of trained pharmaceutical scientists, doctors, and researchers available for joint collaborative drug discovery research. In addition, India's pharmacy industry has low production and research and development costs. National laboratories' strength and innovative scientific manpower provide tremendous opportunities. He also mentioned that Cipla, Sun Pharma, and GSK are among India's most successful companies. The discussion progressed to a Q&A session, during which students asked questions.

One of the main topics of discussion among the students was the scope of online hospitals. Mr. Sareen shared his personal experiences with the students, providing them with valuable insight into the pharmaceutical industry.
